

Wednesday, September 12 2018, 4:10-5:00PM, WEB 1230

Mark England & Alfred Mowdood

University of Utah Marriott Library

Willing Suspension of Integrity: Research Misconduct & Academic Pitfalls

In this seminar, students will examine academic misconduct, research ethics, and plagiarism. Attendees will discuss several case studies. Attendees will learn about resources and services to support research integrity.

Mark England is a librarian with over 30 years of experience in academic libraries. Mark is the Head of Collection Management at the Marriott Library. He has degrees in mining engineering and extensive graduate work in environmental engineering.

Alfred Mowdood is a librarian with over 20 years of experience in academic libraries. Alfred is the Head of Faculty Services and is a Representative to the United States Patent & Trademark Office. Both Mark and Alfred support faculty, students, and staff in the Colleges of Sciences, Engineering, and Health.

